Term 2 of 2018

Week 8

22nd June 2018

What did you want to be when you grew up? I wanted to be a nurse (tried it – didn't like it!), a hairdresser (was a nail artist for a while), or a Kindy teacher. How lucky am I to be able to do what I have wanted to be since I was 4! But today, I thought I might like to be a racing car driver. Mrs Carter wants to be a chef. Lea wants to be a clown, and the students all want to be something amazing when they grow up – a florist, a vet, a teacher, and a WESTS TIGER! Look out Chris Lawrence, Benji Marshall, and Robbie Farah! CHAIS has your jersey in his sights!

WHEN I GROW UP
I WANT TO BE...

All of this is great fun, however, it is for a good cause. Thank you to Woolworths Cowra for supporting Give Me Five for Kids, which raises money for the Children's Ward at Orange Hospital. Chais was lucky enough to win the hamper donated by Woollies Cowra and presented by Pat Morgan. Congratulations Chais! Thank you also to Pat for coming out to visit us and tell us about The Give Me Five for Kids campaign and making us remember how lucky we are, to be healthy and part of a wonderful community.

As the term winds down, we are still as busy as ever. The students are gaining confidence in their gymnastics abilities and will be disappointed when these lessons finish.

Our Stephanie Alexander Kitchen Garden is flourishing. This week, the students had an impromptu salad with orange honey dressing, from the beautiful greens harvested and the oranges from the tree in the school house. It smelt divine and everyone enjoyed it!

Our rose and lavender cuttings are growing well and should be ready to be transplanted in spring. Our broccoli is also growing nicely and hopefully we will have a lovely specimen to enter into the Cowra Show!

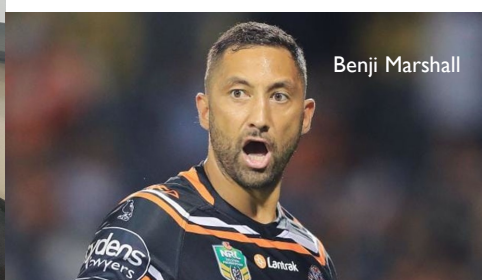

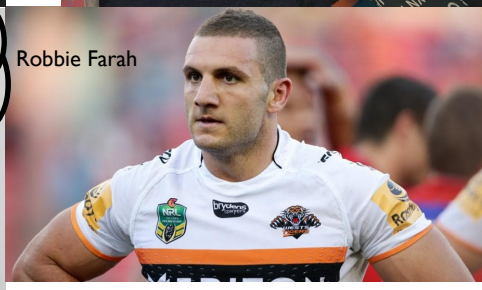

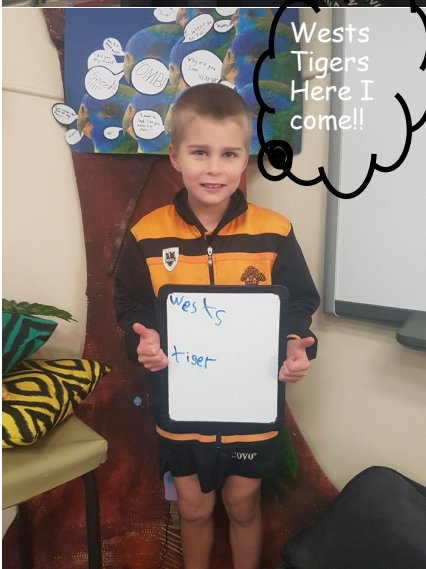

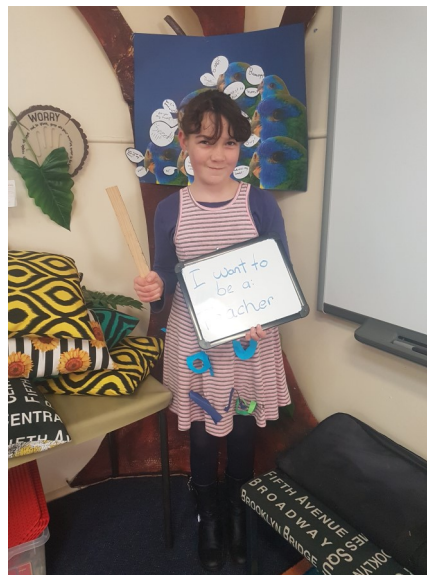

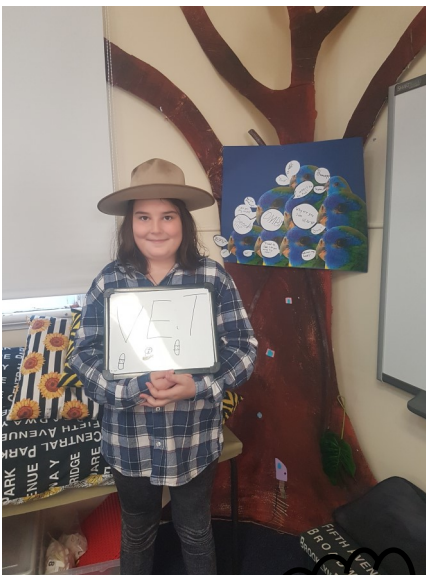

NAIDOC week is being celebrated in the last week of Term and we are going on an excursion to Cowra, to see some local significant Aboriginal sites and then to Cowra High School to enjoy their NAIDOC celebrations. There will be a smoking ceremony and Indigenous games for the children to play. There will be stalls as well. It should be a great day!

The colder weather has definitely arrived and my rule for jumpers is – If you can make dragon's breath, you HAVE to have a jumper on!

Stay warm!

Cheers,
